

Brit Fader Scholarship Trust Announces Third Scholarship Recipient (2010)

The Brit Fader Scholarship Trust announces that Kate English, VA7KJE of Maple Ridge, British Columbia was awarded a scholarship of $1,000.00 in August, 2010.

The scholarship will help towards the cost of Kate attending University of British Columbia to pursue a degree in Forest Resource Management leading towards a career as a registered professional forester. Kate obtained her ham license last year. The Brit Fader Scholarship was founded by the Halifax Amateur Radio Club (HARC) and this is the third scholarship awarded. It is a registered charity in Canada and tax deductible donations may be made payable to Brit Fader Scholarship Trust accompanied by a donation form found on the HARC website.

The scholarship is open to application by Canadian licensed radio amateurs to pursue post-secondary studies and is expected to be continued to be awarded on an annual basis.

Information and application forms are available on the HARC website:
